Comments to the author (if any):

- i. literature review is shallow
- ii. future scope is missing
- iii. all abbreviations should only be used after their first definition
- iv. section should present the methodology algorithmically
- v. novelty of the proposed work should be established by comparing the same with comparable work
- vi. citations establish the credibility of a research work but have been poorly used.
- vii. dataset sources and appropriate citations are missing
- viii. all equations have not been numbered uniquely and referred in text.
- ix. atleast 5 citations from previous issues of BJIT should be cited
- x. sound literature review in tabulated form would be desirable to perform meta-analysis of available work and establish ground for proposed work
- xi. For publication of papers, under Subscription Mode, we do not charge any Publication Fee, whatsoever, upto six pages. However, if the length of the paper exceeds six pages, after it is typeset by Springer, Extra Page Charges (EPC) shall be applicable @ Rs. 2000/- per page (B&W) for Indian authors, and USD 100/- per page (B&W) for International authors, to be paid by the authors to get the paper included in the specific Vol/Issue and printed in Hard Copy of the journal. Actual number of pages shall be informed to the author (s), after the paper is typeset, post acceptance, by the production team of Springer

Please note that this journal is a Transformative Journal (TJ). Authors may publish their research with us through the traditional subscription access route or make their paper immediately open access through payment of an article-processing charge (APC). Authors will not be required to make a final decision about access to their article until it has been accepted.

Authors may need to take specific actions to achieve compliance with funder and institutional open access mandates. If your research is supported by a funder that requires immediate open access (e.g. according to Plan S principles) then you should select the gold OA route, and we will direct you to the compliant route where possible. For authors selecting the subscription publication route our standard licensing terms will need to be accepted, including our self-archiving policies. Those standard licensing terms will supersede any other terms that the author or any third party may assert apply to any version of the manuscript.
